

SCRANTON TENNIS CLUB 2020 Play Programs

LEAGUE PLAY is free to STC members and requires meeting a designated level of play and signing up for season by June 12th with coordinator. Matches are based on a predetermined set season schedule. Players are personally responsible for rescheduling matches or finding a comparable substitute if unable to play. No-shows will be dropped from leagues. This is best for players wishing to commit to a season of weekly, competitive, scores-recorded play. Members who meet level of play requirements can also sign-up as substitutes at any point in season.

ORGANIZED PLAY is free to STC members and requires meeting designated level of play requirements, signing up for weekly invite emails with coordinator, and RSVPing in advance of play date. Court time is on first-come, first-served basis. Coordinator arranges matches. Most Organized Play matches follow STC Court Open Rules after their first set is completed and players are waiting on the porch. This is best for players who wish to play regularly, but who cannot commit to a full season. Organized play offers competition and rotating partners throughout season. An adult member can join an invite list at any time during the season.

SOCIAL PLAY is free to STC members and open to all levels of play and serves as a mixer for adult members of the club. Guests can attend for a $10 fee (limit of 5 visits). Members sign up for invite list with coordinator and RSVP weekly for events. It is recommended to RSVP early as sessions can fill up. Any adult member can be added to an invite list during the season.

WEDNESDAY “Stroke of the Week” GROUP CLINIC

This weekly program is free and open to all Adult STC members and features an hour long group lesson taught by STC Club Pro Joe McNulty and his assistant at 6pm, followed by organized round robin play. This is a great way to improve your game and meet new players. No sign-up required. Note: The starting date of this program may be delayed due to COVID-19 restrictions.

JUNIOR ORGANIZED PLAY is free to all junior STC members. Junior members sign-up for weekly invite emails with coordinator and then RSVP to each week they are available for play. Coordinator arranges matches. Any junior member can join an invite list during the season.

JUNIOR CAMP & JUNIOR CLINICS. Each season STC offers a week-long day camp to kick off the season followed by twice-weekly clinics for juniors looking to grow their skills as tennis players. These programs are open to all community members. Fee required. The structure of this program may be changed due to COVID-19 restrictions

PRIVATE AND GROUP LESSONS. Members arrange directly with STC Club Pro Joe McNulty and his staff to join groups or schedule private coaching. Fee required.

For any general questions about STC Programs contact John Weiss jaweiss@epix.net 570-497-9003. Learn about NTRP Rating Info. If you are unsure of your NTRP rating, contact John Weiss or STC Club Pro Joe McNulty scrtennis85@yahoo.com 570-877-4147.

ADULT LEAGUES

LEAGUES require meeting a designated level of play requirement and signing up for season by May 24th with coordinator. Matches are based on a predetermined set season schedule. Players are personally responsible for rescheduling matches or finding a comparable replacement if unable to attend. No-shows will be dropped from leagues. This is best for players wishing to commit to a season of weekly, competitive, scores-recorded play.

1:00-3:00 pm - For high school age players and more advanced younger players, we offer the following groups:

Tennis 101- Players who have no or limited tennis experience. Players will learn basic stroke fundamentals, movement, rallying, and scorekeeping.

Futures- Players who are experienced and capable of playing on the full court. We will work on strengthening the basic strokes, developing match strategy, and moving more efficiently on the court.

Tournament Training- We will work with players who regularly play in tournaments and/or compete for their high school teams.

Due to the virus, we would be happy to accommodate groups of 4 to 6 students who would prefer to be in a group with their friends. Please sign up together so we can set aside a court and instructor for your group.

All other players will be grouped by ability. There will be up to four courts set aside for these classes, with 4 to 6 students per instructor.

Cost: $120 for the 6 sessions, $135 if your child would also like to participate in the Junior Play Program during the first session. Pay cash or check payable to Joe McNulty
